Birsa Munda's Education

Birsa Munda was born in a village named Ulihatu, Jharkhand. His family was below the poverty rate, he was taken to his maternal uncle's village, Ayurbhatu where he lived for two years. He received his early education from a school at Salga, run by Jaipal Nag. Being a sharp student he was persuaded by Jaipal Nag to attend German mission School. Therefore, he was converted to Christianity as Birsa David and got enrolled in the school. He studied for a few years before opting out.
